

Recreational Dance Classes Scholarship Application FAQs

Who is eligible to apply for the scholarship?

Applicants must be actively enrolled in dance classes at a recognized studio or school. Additional eligibility criteria, such as age, experience level, or residency, may apply-please refer to the specific scholarship guidelines.

How do I apply for the scholarship?

Complete the scholarship application form and submit it along with all requirements (e.g., personal statement, performance video links). Applications must be submitted by the deadline.

What is the application deadline?

The application deadline is January 13th, 2025. Late submissions will not be accepted, so ensure your application is sent on time.

What documents do I need to include in my application?

Required documents include:

- A completed application form.
- A personal statement/essay.
- Proof of enrollment in dance classes.
- A performance video

Refer to the application form for a complete list of required attachments.

How will recipients be selected?

Scholarship recipients will be chosen by the Sanders fund's board members based on a combination of factors, including their passion for dance, goals outlined in the personal statement and performance video evaluation.

When will I find out if I received the scholarship?

Applicants will be notified of the selection results by January 20th. Notifications will be sent via email.

How will the scholarship funds be distributed?

Funds will typically be paid directly to the applicant's dance studio or school to cover tuition. Specific arrangements may vary by scholarship.

Can I apply for the scholarship if I have already received it in the past?

Yes, past recipients may apply. Repeat applicants should demonstrate how the additional support will further their growth as a dancer.

What should I include in my personal statement?

Your personal statement should be a one-page essay describing:

- Your passion for dance.
- Your goals as a dancer.
- How receiving the scholarship will benefit your growth and journey in dance.
- Your financial need

Can I edit my application after submission?

No, once your application is submitted, changes cannot be made. Ensure all information is accurate and complete before submitting.
